

Paddington is a cuddly, kind bear who loves to eat sticky, marmalade sandwiches.

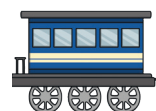

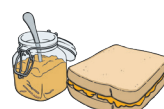

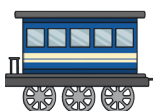

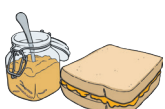

He wears a large, red hat that he says keeps him warm. Also, he wears a long blue coat with wooden buttons. It has long sleeves and a big hood that flaps down behind his little hat.

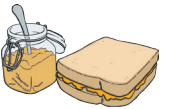

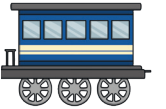

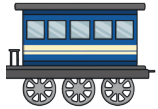

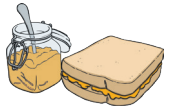

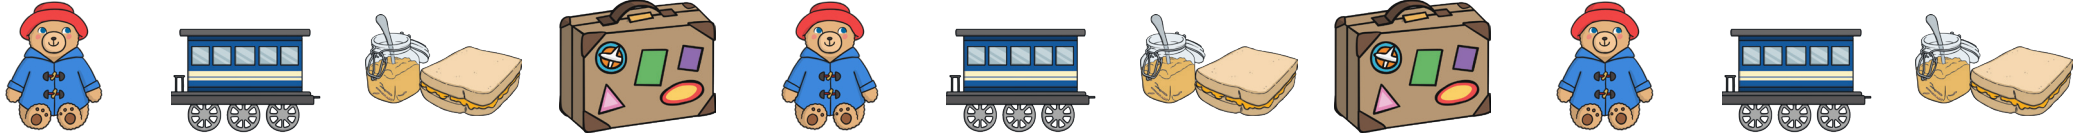

Paddington's shiny, black wellingtons keep him dry in the rainy weather. On his face, Paddington often has a small smile which does not show his sharp teeth. His eyes are small, brown and round. They can give hard stares. His old Aunt Lucy told him how to do hard stares when people had forgotten their manners!

All in all, Paddington is a lovely, friendly, brown bear who is a good friend to everyone.
